DETENTION ORDER - 2 18 U.S.C. § 3142(i)

FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

- (1) The Complaint and Warrant were signed in this district on May 13, 2010. Defendant was arrested in the District of Oregon, however. On July 2, 2010, the court in that district conducted a full detention hearing, together with a probable cause hearing. Defendant was present and represented by counsel at that hearing. The court had before it a pretrial services report.
- (2) The pretrial services report included, inter alia, the following information. Defendant has a lengthy criminal record, most of which involve misdemeanors. A search of his residence produced evidence that he has been involved in dog fighting. He has used at least six aliases.
- (3) The minutes of the court hearing in Oregon include, "The defendant is detained on both flight and danger risks." There was no specific written "Detention Order" entered, however.
- (4) Given the fact that the court conducted a full detention hearing, it is therefore neither necessary nor appropriate for this court to conduct another detention hearing, now that defendant has been transported to this district
- (5) This order is without prejudice to defendant's opportunity to move to re-open the issue of detention, if he can adduce new evidence which meets the statutory standard for a motion to reopen. 18 U.S.C. Sec. 3142(f).

It is therefore ORDERED:

(1) Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;

- (2) Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel;
- On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which defendant is confined shall deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding; and
- (4) The clerk shall direct copies of this order to counsel for the United States, to counsel for the defendant, to the United States Marshal, and to the United States Pretrial Services Officer.

DATED this 9th day of July, 2010.

United States Magistrate Judge
